DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. Claims 1,3-25 are allowed.
- 2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for the allowance of claims 1,3-10 is the inclusion of the limitation: 'during the test sequence, testing operation of a receiver in the computer with the reference voltage signal set at the second level, an input of the receiver being connected to the reference voltage signal, and another input of the receiver being connected to a single-ended signal that is processed by the receiver both during the normal operation and the test sequence'.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 11-19 is the inclusion of the following limitation: 'a receiver having a first input connected to the reference voltage signal and a second input connected to a single-ended signal that is processed by the receiver during normal operation of the computer system; and the circuit responsive to the test software to adjust a voltage level of the reference voltage signal from a first voltage level to a second voltage level'.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 20 is the inclusion of the following limitation: 'receiving means having a first input connected to the reference voltage signal and a second input connected to a single-ended signal that is processed during normal operation of the computer system; wherein the generating means is responsive to the software to adjust a voltage level of the reference voltage signal from a first voltage level to a second voltage level'.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 21-24 is the inclusion of the following limitation: 'a receiver having a first input connected to the single-ended signal, and a second input connected to the reference voltage signal; and a controller to control the circuit to vary a voltage level of the reference voltage signal during a test sequence.'

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 25 is the inclusion of the following limitation: 'perform, during the test sequence, a diagnostic test of a receiver having a first input connected to the reference voltage signal with the reference voltage signal at the second level, and the receiver having a second input connected to a single-ended signal that is processed both during the normal operation and the test sequence'.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
